

IOSH Managing Safely

A four-day course providing qualification in safety and health for managers

What you will learn

Successful participants will be able to:

- Apply basic management principles to health and safety issues
- Set achievable health and safety objectives and develop a plan to achieve them
- Recognise health and safety hazards
- Carry out risk assessments of workplace hazards and recommend suitable controls
- Take account of risks arising from ergonomic factors
- Ensure that adequate information, training and supervision is provided to employees
- Investigate an accident or incident involving injury or damage to determine the cause and take appropriate actions

The course

- Managing safely
- Reactive monitoring
- Risk assessment
- Health and safety legislation
- Fire
- Electricity, work equipment
- Movement of people, vehicles
- Poor housekeeping, manual handling, DSE
- Noise, chemicals
- Active monitoring
- Safety management systems
- Practical workplace assessment

We work with the best - IOSH is Europe's leading body for health and safety professionals and represents 28,000 members in over 50 countries

Who should attend?

Supervisors and managers who are:

- Required to manage efficiently and effectively in accordance with the organisation's safety policy and safety legislation
- Manage so as not to endanger their workforce, other people, the environment or the physical assets of the organisation

Next steps...

- NEBOSH National General Certificate
- IRCA OH&S Auditing Principles
- Integrated Management Systems

Call our training advisors on 01565 724 200 for details

IOSH Accredited Course

Turn to pages 66-71 for dates and venues