

Preventing Accidents

A one-day course on common human factor causes of workplace safety & quality accidents

What you will learn

The course will give a good understanding of:

- The human and financial costs of workplace safety and quality accidents
- Why most accidents have human factor causes
- Human errors and ways to prevent them
- How to look for human error risks in the workplace
- Common factors that affect our behaviours
- The concept of behavioural observation and feedback to change behaviour
- The approaches and processes that can be used

The course

- Workplace safety and quality accident - parallels and costs
- Why most accidents involve human factors
- Understanding and preventing human errors in the workplace
- Changing behaviours in the workplace
- Approaches and processes that can be used

Every year accidents costs UK employers £billions - 9 million working days were lost last year due to workplace injury

Who should attend?

- Safety and quality managers
- Production and other managers with operational responsibilities for safety and quality
- Technical and engineering staff who provide equipment and operating instructions
- Senior managers who wish to understand the potential business benefits

Next steps...

- Accident Investigation
- NEBOSH National General Certificate

Call our training advisors on 01565 724 200 for details

Order hotline: 01565 724 200